LORI MEEBOER WORKSHOP

Thursday, May 22, 2025

North Fredericksburgh Lifestyle Centre

9:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. (doors open by 9:00 a.m. for setup)

Cost: $25.00 per person

This workshop will focus on two major areas of creating visual art, colour and composition.

Lori will teach about and demonstrate some rules of composition and provide examples of different types of composition that can be applied to any style (realism, representational and abstract) Focus will be on creating strong focal points, understanding compositional methods and practice creating composition.

Colour is one of the most important fundamentals of art. Lori will walk participants through an understanding of how colour theory works and put into practice the creation of a colour journal.

We will practice mixing colours and discuss limited palettes and creating colour harmony.

In addition, Lori will be sharing insight into the business of art, applying to galleries and how to use social media to boost sales.
